

Shoreline Entertainments Presents

Based in the West Country, this versatile Comedian / Compere has worked the club circuit for about 22 years, Firstly as part of a successful double act, then for the past 14 years as a successful solo act.

Going solo enabled him to change direction to some extent from an adult only act to a more family based humour and has recently been working one nighters at Butlin's and a variety of venues for the Courage Entertains Tour, whilst still being very busy on the club scene.

In 2006 he has also been very busy supporting sports stars on the after dinner / sportsman's dinner evenings, working with Neil (Razor) Ruddock, Gareth Chilcott, David Lloyd, Sir Geoff Hurst, Denis Law and Gordon Banks and has also supported Mick Miller and Stan Boardman.

The whole act is a mixture of gags, audience mickey-taking (not offensive) and observations on life, and whilst the humour is still adult based, it can be sufficiently clean if required to cater for children in the audience. Either way it is very funny.

Stewart is ideally suited to a club or after dinner type atmosphere. With his own laid back West Country style, he is loved by audiences everywhere

Stewart Masters is more from the Jack Dee rather than the Lee Evans School of performing, his trump card is some great material and the ability to get in sync with his audience very quickly. He's clearly popular down in the West Country and not without good reason, chipping in some priceless quips throughout the day and jollying the proceedings along.

Showcase 2006

With Ron Atkinson and Jim Smith being the main attraction it was very important the comedian could follow their act, a job which Stewart Masters did superbly. Thanks for making the event flow perfectly and manage to keep the laughter going all night long.

Peter Corbett, Commercial Manager Oxford United FC

Stewart Masters was excellent and was extremely funny and kept the whole evening flowing. The show was a great success and I have no hesitation in recommending Stewart's services to anybody wishing to organise a similar event

Mark Watkins, Commercial Manager Axminster Town FC