

Lucy Harvey
Female vocalist and saxophonist

Lucy is no stranger to the entertainments industry. From working as a coat entertainer through to entertainments manager with a prestigious UK holiday company, as well as fulfilling vocal contracts abroad.

Lucy's cabaret brings something extra special to the stage. With a mixture of soulful sax and vivacious vocals, Lucy is guaranteed to leave them wanting more.

Combining genre's such as, moody blues to modern day pop and everything in-between, a great night is to be had by all, or entertainment to suit your every need.

Lucy Harvey, livened things up somewhat. This tall, slim, striking girl has an engaging personality. Possessing all the elements of an all-round class act, she even got a Mexican wave going around the room during her saxophone rendition of Tequila. Watchable and smile-inducing, she also sings very well. I would be most surprised if the assembled bookers were not queuing up to offer her work
